

Company: Nuberg Engineering Ltd.

Locations: Noida | Department: Finance and Accounts | Reports to: GCFO/ BU Head

No. of vacancies: 1 (EPC Project Cost Management) | Cost Accountant

CTC: 6 LPA

About us:

Nuberg is one of the key industrial players in Project Engineering and Turnkey Contracting companies running worldwide. The company is a dedicated group of veteran and proficient professionals and engineers having years of know how skills in the area to facilitate top-notch turnkey project services like engineering design, chemical process technology, procurement, implementation, commissioning & heavy fabrication in the industry of chemicals & fertilizers, nuclear & defence, steel and hydrocarbons. Nuberg is a global company divided into 3 divisions, namely; EPC, Heavy Fabrication & Gas Plant Division with expertise in process equipment for various sectors.

Job Purpose:

The ICWA / Cost Accountant will play a strategic role in cost control, profitability analysis, budgeting, and financial governance, partnering with operations and leadership teams to drive value.

Key Responsibilities:

- Budget Development: Prepare detailed project budgets, allocate costs to WBS elements, and align with project schedules.
- Cost Tracking: Monitor actual vs. planned expenditures, update forecasts, and maintain cost ledgers.
- Variance Analysis: Identify deviations, analyse root causes, and recommend corrective measures.
- Procurement Cost Control: Validate vendor invoices, ensure PO/GRN/Invoice matching, and track material cost impacts.
- Construction Cost Oversight: Monitor subcontractor billing, labour productivity, and site overheads.
- Cash Flow Management: Prepare cash flow forecasts, track inflows/outflows, and support project financing.
- MIS & Reporting: Generate monthly cost reports, dashboards, and management summaries.
- Change & Risk Impact: Assess financial implications of scope changes, delays, and risks.